

What if there was a language that could speak so directly to the heART it would allow you to bypass the dis-ease of mind? Since words construct reality, what if a marriage between the most ancient symbols of humanity and the business-like way of English would produce a spark of such light it would ignite the divinity of your spirit, and unleash your creativity masterfoolly? Could you then have a total blast Go-ALL the way to your GoAL?

How to Go-ALL the way to your GoAL! counts the holographic Fairy Tale of the Princess and the P.E.E., a.k.a. Prince Eagle English. Although enslaved in Ego-Egypt and imprisoned in the Tower of Psycho-Babel, Hebrew Prince$$/Process was aware that she had come to eARTH to experience deliberately her power to create. However, she had to wait for the Prince to get his act together and to get her satisfactorily. Eagle English had always known that words construct worlds: asking what L.O.V.E. would do, he tongue-kissed her, collapsing the rigid confusion of languages and the insane chatter of minds solely by looking through the eye-no-sense of innocence.

Thus their heART opened to receive easily and forever happily a trust, a hearing, and a reliable and sexy vehicle to transcend the eternal joke, moment by moment!

The Princess and the P.E.E.
